Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi is the premier doctoral granting institution in South Texas. More than 43 undergraduate, 33 masters, and nine doctoral/terminal degrees make the Island University the intellectual hub of the Coastal Bend.

Nationally and internationally known institutes, research centers and labs, and award-winning degree programs draw approximately 12,000 students annually to the Island University.
The University’s economic benefit to Corpus Christi is $497.5 million annually.
CORPUS CHRISTI COMMUNITY IMPACT

1,000 Students = $47 million and 809 full-time jobs

$831.5 million The University’s contribution to additional lifetime earnings of Corpus Christi residents

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi boosts employment by 8,565 full-time-equivalent jobs

2,556 Corpus Christi residents employed by the University

6,009 Jobs created by University economic activity
The University’s economic benefit to the Coastal Bend is $542.8 million annually.
COASTAL BEND REGION

IMPACT

1,000 Students

= $51.3 million and 895 full-time jobs

$907.3 million

The University’s contribution to additional lifetime earnings of Coastal Bend residents

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi boosts employment by 9,482 full-time-equivalent jobs

2,830 Coastal Bend residents employed by the University

6,651 Jobs created by University economic activity
The University’s economic benefit to Texas is $858.7 million annually.
STATE OF TEXAS

IMPACT

1,000 Students = $81 million and 1,218 full-time jobs

$1.35 billion The University’s contribution to additional lifetime earnings of Texas residents

Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi boosts employment by 12,899 full-time-equivalent jobs

3,850 Texas residents employed by the University

9,047 Jobs created by University economic activity
Over the years, students gained new skills, making them more productive workers by studying at A&M-Corpus Christi. Today, these former students are employed in Texas. A degree from Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi also produces a significant boost to its graduates' lifetime earnings.

The University's contribution to additional lifetime earnings of Texas residents amounts to $1.35 billion. For each dollar of state appropriated funds, Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi generates $16.20 in economic impacts across Texas communities.
For each dollar of state appropriated funds, the University generates $16.20 in economic impact across Texas.
This document presents the most recent data and analyses that builds on a study, “Demonstrating the Economic Value of Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi,” conducted by Economic Modeling Specialists International (EMSI). The report was updated by Dr. Jim Lee, Director of the South Texas Economic Development Center at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi.